

GENERAL SIKORSKI DECORATES POLISH NAVAL HEROES.

The Polish Prime Minister and Commander in Chief General Sikorski arrives onboard a Polish Warship at a British Port, to decorate some of his sailors for gallantry in action against the enemy. The awards include four Virtuti Militari Crosses. A decoration equivalent to the B.C. These men won their decorations in the battles of Narvik, Dunkirk, Galais and in engagements in the Channel. Places where our allies have won immortal glory.
