

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/26.

THE CALL FOR WOMEN

Interviewer: "Now Miss Sutton, what do you think about this Conscription Scheme"?

"Well I think it is a very good idea, it shows that the women of this country are doing their bit as well as the men".

(Couple doing each other's hair) "I suppose you'll be leaving us shortly".

"Yes, I think I will, I think I'll give the Land Army a try".

"Do you think you'll like that"?

"Yes, the life rather suits me, I don't think any of us want to starve whatever happens, do you"?

"What will I do about my hair - I can't possibly come down into the country".

"Oh well then, I suggest you wear it straight, like Hitler's".

Interviewer: "And what would you like to do"?

"Well, I'd like to help to build Spitfires, my boy is in the R.A.F. and I'd feel I was helping him".

Interviewer: "And you Miss Clark"

"Well I think the sooner we all pull together in this thing, the sooner it will be over. I myself would like to go into the services because it's the uniform that appeals".

Interviewer: "Now Miss ? would you like to go into munitions as well?"

"Yes, I would. I would like to make one big bomb so as to polish off that man".

contd./

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/26. continued..

Interviewer: "And what would you like to do?"

"I would like to join the A.T.S."

"Why the A.T.S?"

"Well, plenty of variety and I shall be doing my bit to help my country, and who knows, I might be a Sergeant Major". (Laughter)