

5-108800

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/43. (DUBLIN)

U.S. ARMY CADETS

The Navy pays the Army a compliment when the military cadets at their Fort Biggs camp are reviewed by the Naval Secretary, Frank Knox. These are some of the men who have been selected to undergo a year's training in all branches of the service, and they're fully mechanised. In the national cause they have taken to discipline like a duck to water. The cadets are stepping out.