3. M.S. Churchill speaking to the assembly:- "Here before us on this table lie the title deeds of ten nations or states whose soil has been invaded and polluted, and whose men women and children lie frustrated and writhing under the Hitler yoke. What tragedies, what horrors, what crimes has Hitler; and all that Hitler stands for, brought upon Europe and the world. The ruins of Warsaw, of Rotterdam, of Belgrade are monuments which will long recall to future generations the outrage of the unopposed air bombing applied with calculated and scientific cruelty to helpless populations. Here in London and throughout the cities of our island and in Ireland there may also be seen the marks of devastation. They are being repaid, and presently they will be more than repaid. The prisons of the continent no longer suffice, the concentration camps are overcrowded, every dawn the firing parties are at their work, every dawn the German volleys crack. Czechs, Poles Dutchmen, Norwegians, Serbs., and Greeks, Frenchmen, Belgians and Yugoslavs make the final sacrifice of faith and country. It is upon this foundation that Hitler, with his tattered lacky Mussolini at the tail and Admiral Darloff frisking at his side, pretends to build out of hatred appetite and racial assertion, a new order for Europe. Never did so mocking a fantasy obsess the mind of mortal man. It will not be by German hands that the structure of Europe will be rebuilt, or the union of the European families achieved. Hitler may turn and trample this way and that through tortured Europe, he may spread his course far and wide and carry his curse with him, he may break into Africa or into Asia, but it is with us here in this island fortress, that he will have to reckon and settle
