

ROYAL TOUR OF NORTH EAST

Continuing a happy association founded during the days of peace, the King and Queen make an extensive tour of Industrial establishments and shipyards in the North East. The men who are valiantly helping in the "backyards" to fight the Battle of the Atlantic, appreciate to the full this truly democratic gesture by Their Majesties. The tour (which includes an inspection of A.R.P. Personnel) demonstrates the ever-green popularity of the King and Queen in these stout hearted birthplace of Britain's Naval and Mercantile shipping.
