MARYLAND HORSE RACE

If there's one thing the good folk of Maryland like more than Maryland, is a Maryland horse race, and today a distinguished punter is band-leader Paul Whiteman. What an "off" they are heading straight for the camera, all set on biting our cameraman but he can take a flying leap as well as a good picture. So hold everything. Well, it was a close shave, but now they are getting away into the back straight with High Bud the favourite just waiting to buck. Into the final turn Bud makes his bid, he's moving up, he's almost neck and neck - what a race. High Bud does it in a grand last minute spurt. Whiteman's runner was named Also Ran.
