ARCHBISHOP VISITS PRISONERS.

Roman catholic prisoners, German and Italian, and their Padres, held captive at a Prisoners of War Camp in Egypt, are visited by the Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Gustavus Testa, and the First Secretary, Monsignor Charles Perico.

The visit emphasises that prisoners of war in British hands are treated in accordance with International law, and are given every ~~facility~~ facility to fulfil the obligations of their religion, which is in full accord with our policy of Liberty of Conscience for the individual. Before leaving, His Eminence gives the Apostolic blessing.
