BOBSLED RACE.

The speed slopes of the Kansas snow run brings out the best for the Bennet Trophy, one of the most coveted awards. Off goes another crew to beat the wind in a breathless dash over the glistening snow. Negotiating the steep banks are the favourites, you can tell at a glance that this isn't their first run and here's a pretty bank to show, but you certainly can't bank on it unless you're an expert. Down come the winners, the Kansas Kids, but unlike Jack in the nursery rhyme they didn't break their crowns.
