

HEROES OF AUGSBURG.

Mr. Brendon Bracken, Minister of Information, introduces heroes of the Augsburg raid to the Press. The daring attack in ~~mid~~ daylight by Lancaster bombers stands out as one of the aerial epics of this war. The flight of some thousand miles, hedge-hopping over hostile territory and in the face of stiff opposition won Squadron Leader Nettleton the V.C. One by one, he saw the aircraft of his formation shot down until only his own and one other remained.

Now meet some of the men who have been decorated for their part in the daring enterprise. A fine job by an Empire Team.

Flt/Lt. Penman D.F.C., D.S.O. is from Edinburgh.

Flt/Lt. Hallows ~~MBE~~ D.F.C. was born at Chester.

Sergt. Irons D.F.M. is a Londoner from Walthamstow.

Pilot Officer Sands D.F.C. is a dinkum Aussie from Albany, Western Australia.

Sergt. Huntley D.F.M. son of a soldier, Bails from Salisbury in Southern Rhodesia.

Squadron-Leader Nettleton V.C. is a South African from Cape Town, and the first South African V.C. of this war.
