KENTUCKY DERBY.

Let's break away from war talk for a moment and join the crowd at Churchill Downs for the 68th running of America's Kentucky Derby.

They're off, and seventy thousand racing fans see number 3 and 16

SHUT OUT and DEVIL DIVER jump into the lead. But it's not long before another favourite puts on the pressure and robs them of leading position. It's number 17 WITH REGARDS, well backed and running strongly.

WITH REGARDS is holding first place with SHUT OUT running not far behind, followed by ALSAB, VALDINA ORPHAN and DEVIL DIVER. Round the turn 17 still looks like cashing in on that 86,000 dollar prize money, but SHUT OUT and ALSAB are still putting up a challenge.

If WITH REGARDS can hold that lead he'll have the race all buttoned up. But here's excitement, No. 3 SHUT OUT isn't shut out any longer. He's coming up fast on the outside and has taken the lead. Yes, No. 3. is simply flying home.

Oh! hard luck, she must have lost. SHUT OUT makes Kentucky the DELIGHTED STATE OF AMERICA.
