

G.MEN AND NAZI SPIES.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover and his G. Men have a tremendous job watching nearly five thousand miles of coast for enemy sneak-invaders.

These official American pictures show how cases of explosives, and other means of sabotage from Germany, were found buried, in the Florida sands, by eight Nazi spies...

~~They~~ Captured equipment included uniforms for the spies after landing, a money-belt containing a hundred-and-seventy-thousand American dollars to finance deeds of destruction, and some innocent-looking pens and pencils which in reality are heavily-charged incendiaries.

Now listen to a word from Mr. Hoover, Chief of the G. Men.

SPEECH.

The trial of the would-be saboteurs is held in strictest secrecy, one of the witnesses being the ~~former~~ fiancée of Herbert Haupt one of the accused. They were put ashore by U. Boats to spread destruction, but now the people of the United States are demanding their destruction...for the penalty is DEATH! They're lucky, for in Nazi Germany there wouldn't even be a trial!
