MALTA RECEIVES ITS GEORGE CROSS.

Malta's glorious resistance to the enemy is suitably honoured in the bomb-battered Palace Square, Valetta.... when Lord Gort V.C., Governor and Commander-in-Chief, presents the people of Malta with their George Cross. Sir George Berg, the Chief Justice, receives the decoration for the citizens. He then takes the Casket containing the Cross and the King's letter which accompanied it. to the stand from which the people of Malta may view their cherished honour, until such time as it is taken to every village and town in the Island. No people on earth have withstood so much as these loyal and stout-hearted Maltese who now read the King's words of Admiration.
