TITLE.:-OUTBOARD RACING AT THE WEISH HARB.

Picture.:- This coveted trophy was presented by the Duchess in nineteen-twenty-eight - and is raced for annually.

This is the only competitor of the fair sex, Miss Joan Spicer.

Here they come - with twelve miles of choppy water to negotiate before the winning post is reached.

Some get anxious moments - look at this chap, he only just avoids disaster - others find the going very bumpy, as you see.

Here's five-twenty-two, the winner coming down in grand style.

Mr. Bomford looks happy in the possession of the much coveted Duchess of York's Trophy.

TITLE.ROUND THE WORLD BY AIR.

Picture.:- Wing Commander Kingsford Smith "makes both ends meet" - for here he is landing in California, whence he departed two years ago, since when he has flown right round the world.

Alighting from the "Southern Cross", the aviator is greeted and congratulated by Captain G. Allan Hancock - backer of the flight.

His next venture may be even more hazardous - FOR HE IS GETTING MARRIED.

Of course, the most dramatic part of this round-the-world flight, was the daring "hop" of Kingsford Smith, with his three companions Vandyk, Stannage and Saul, from Ireland to Newfoundland.
