

TITLE.:- CITIZEN SOLDIERS.

Picture.:- Sixteen years ago, thousands of other young territorials marched lightheartedly to their annual camp, just as these.

But before the short period of their training was over, the world was plunged into the greatest tragedy of its history - and those lads remained in khaki to face the grim realities of the World War.

At the end of their long march these Citizen Soldiers welcome the order "Dismiss".

This also is very, very welcome !

It looks rather good to me !

Oh yes ! the army of to-day's alright !

TITLE.:-FOR A GOOD CAUSE.

Picture.:- Carslake takes a toss. Here he is with "Augur" of the Sporting Life.

The men of the racing press take the field.-

Cottrill and Leach open for the Jockeys - the former making no less than one hundred and seventeen before being stumped.

This is Cottrill in action - he's 'at home' on the turf.

And now see Carslake who scored a splendid sixty-nine before being sent back.

The hospitals will receive a useful addition to their funds from this match between the Jockeys and their critics.
