TITLE.:- LANDSKIFF RACING.

Picture.:- They are propelled by pulling a strap which is set between the front wheels.

This is the first Landskiff race ever held in this country. Guiding is done by pressure on the front axle, with left or right foot.

They should certainly develop your muscles. You can "coast" on them too.

A burst of energy -- giving him the distinction of winning the first race.

Miss Gracie Fields the Lancashire comedienne, says she'll try anything -- once ! So she tries this sport ---
---and proves to be so adept that she easily beats her opponent -- a mere man.

By gee ! That was champion -- says Gracie as she disentangles herself.

TITLE.:- MILITARY DISPLAY.

Picture.:- The show is opened by the massed bands and drums of the Garrison.

The physical training staff turn a few cartwheels -- to do this by numbers isn't easy.

Then Despatch Riders of the Royal Corps of signals show us some paper tearing ! Here's number five -- number six is late, where -- oh ! here he is !

Motor-bike steeplechasing -- proof that army life is one of ups and downs.

Our picture ends with a fine view of the Musical Drive by the Royal Artillery. Military charities should benefit to a useful extent, judging by the splendid attendance -- that's if everybody paid !
