TITLE. HANK GRAND PRIX.

Picture.:- There were forty-seven starters. Here they are standing by for ten o'clock -- when Number One is due to be sent off.

Ten o'clock ! and the first rider gets away.

They follow close on each other in the earlier stages of this two-hundred-and-twenty-six-miles race --

--but spread out quite a lot as it proceeds.

No less than twenty competitors dropped out ! This is hardly to be wondered at.

Here's a nasty corner. Competitors wisely take it very carefully -- and so avoid coming to grief.

Flagging in the winner, who comes in at eighty-odd miles an hour just ahead of the second man.

Merrill of Southport averaged sixty-nine-point-four-nine miles an hour for the entire course. Good work !

TITLE.:- DRAMA GATHERING.

Picture.:- The arena in Princess Royal Park was partly flooded by torrents of rain -- yet the hardy clansmen carried through the program according to plan.

It needs a very strong arm to Put the Ball.

Note how this one buries itself in the mud.

To spirited airs played by a piper in a drenching downpour a trio of Scottish youngsters carry on for all the world as though the sun was shining !

Of course there are Tossing the Gaber competitions for strong men.

Never in the whole history of this famous meeting has such terrible weather been experienced. It was so bad that Their Majesties the King and Queen were obliged to cancel their customary visit.
