--the band on the ice. Rather a cold job, but the -- --spirit's there ! Considering how little practice they -- ✓ --get, they skate pretty well. * Then there --

--are refreshments. Hope that's not iced lemonade they're drinking ! Brrh ! And now, --

✓ --Dad shows the young 'uns a thing or two ! * Hullo, is that the office ? * Sorry Father won't be in to-day, he's feeling a bit giddy ! * The youngsters --

✓ --favour quick action. An impromptu Hockey match gives them their chance. * It's everybody against everybody else ! And they all want --

--to be centre forwards. It's a striking game, with the ice doing most of the striking !
