TITLE.: GLASGOW "HOLD UP".

Picture.:- You've no doubt heard that it is - well, - not easy to get Scots people to "part up". ... Whatever truth, or otherwise, there may be in this, they part with their bawbees readily enough to-day. NOR are their donations of the "come-back" brand, with elastic on them !

X

They even throw pennies at German soldiers who make an appeal from the top of a perfectly good British tank, which proclaims - above the din - that "All's quiet" - but not in Glasgow ! ... The students use every possible device to get money, --

--while the Lord Provost smiles at their efforts. ... From what --

--one hears you'd think the streets would have been deserted, but no, Glasgow comes up to scratch--

--in grand style, with charities reaping a golden harvest ... Good work !
