(7). TITLE.:- WRESTLING.

Picture.:- When a couple of fine specimens of manhood such as these, enter the ring you may expect "fireworks".

9. Here they are ! Londos shakes the challenger, and UP ! - a spin - and CRASH ! That's a rough idea of what "all-in" wrestling means ! ... Up again, and --

--HEY ! it's wrestling, not racing ! ... And you're out of bounds, young feller ! ... Something's sure to happen--

--now ! ... McMillan gives the champion a gruelling few minutes, but OW ! he gets his answer ! ...

Londos thinks it's gone on long enough - and the battle becomes fast and furious ! It's the "snappiest scrap" on record ! Go it you chaps ! In a mix-up like this a chap might easily bite something, and find it's his own - Ha ! ha ! Come on back, both of you ! ... The champion gets his leg pulled ! - and the challenger comes up for some more !

And now - ZONK ! - The champion's warmed up ! - CRASH ! - McMillan's underneath, but wriggling like an eel ! The referee gets a "close-up" of how things are going, but it's nearly half a minute before he decides it's a win ! The champion keeps his title, but he's very, very distressed. ... It was one of the toughest contests in his career. ... A great bout !
