TITLE.:- BACK TO MOTHERLAND.

Picture.:- Out of the mists of the early morning the great liner arrives, --

--with three - or, at least, two-and-a-half, famous Britishers ! ... It's hardly necessary for me to tell you who they are ! ... Although Charlie Chaplin is no giant, both he and Captain Campbell - (since created Sir Malcolm Campbell) - the Ace of Speeds, tower above the diminutive Steve Donoghue.

... Charlie is as happy as a schoolboy at visiting the "old country". ... If he doesn't wear out that hat before long, I'll be surprised. ... We -- --asked him if he would ever talk in pictures. ... Here's the answer ! ..

Welcome home, Charlie ! ... And in that, we voice the whole country's good wishes -- --to the man who has done so much for happiness.

... Now he's in the train on the way to dear, dirty old London, and good-naturedly allows us to invade --

--his privacy even here. ... He's a very good "sport". ... Jolly good luck to you, Charlie !
