

135518-C

(2).

TITLE.:- GRAND NATIONAL SUNDAY.

Picture.:- Over three-hundred-thousand people take a look over the course, which means so much to hopeful millions throughout the whole of Britain - and the world for that matter. ... Everybody's got a "bit on" a fancied gee-gee in the big race,--

--and they like to see the obstacles that stand in the way of their money coming back to them - with "Knobs oh". This is Valentine's Brook. Take a closer --

--look! ... Your horse - and mine - has to jump that ! ...

Here's the Canal Turn - usually the scene of much excitement on the great day. ...

The vast crowd goes over all the jumps - that's more than some of the horses will ever do !