TITLE.:- BIGGER BOURNEMOUTH.

Picture.:- In embracing Kinson, in Dorset, and Holdenhurst, in Hampshire, Bournemouth increases its area by over four thousand acres.

A number of ceremonies mark the extension of the boundaries, the first being --

--the cutting of a tape by the Mayor, at the Hants and Dorset boundary-line, at Talbot Village.

Next, His Worship, lays the foundation stone of a new school, made necessary by the new development in the affairs of the district.

You could almost believe that the youngsters welcome the idea of more school !

Perhaps they do - and perhaps not ! - but I'd give something to know what's in the mind of the three little conspirators in the foreground !
