

(6).

TITLE:- IN HONOUR OF THE PRESIDENT.

Picture:- The President of the French Republic receives a cordial welcome to -- --Kairwan, when he visits the ancient Mecca of -- --Northern Africa. .... The natives --

--greet Monsieur Doumergue with one of their typical fantasias - a wild ride past without any attempt at military formation, or any show of discipline. .... The illustrious visitor --

--shows keen interest and excitement at the -- --display, and no wonder; for it's a heart stirring show that these fine --

--Arab horsemen put up in his honour. .... The President is paying the Protectorate an -- --official visit, and the Bedouin Arabs look upon it as a very great honour.