

(a). TITLE.:- SHAKESPEARE'S DAY.

Picture.:- The whole world honours the immortal memory of the bard, on the 367th anniversary of his birth at Stratford-on-Avon. The High Street of the famous old town takes on a festive appearance as the flags of seventy-five nations are unfurled to mark the day. Civilization regards William Shakespeare as its greatest poet, and this picturesque annual ceremony of homage to his memory draws to Stratford people from all parts of the world.

English, American, French, Spanish, Japanese, Chinese, and scores of others are here to pay tribute to the Immortal Memory.

A visit is paid to the cottage where the poet first saw the light of day.

This is followed by a procession to his tomb in the little parish church. A universal pilgrimage honouring one of --

--Britain's most famous sons, whose words have come to us as a legacy through the centuries.
