TITLE:- CUP FINAL.

Picture.:- There are ninety-odd thousand people there to see the "Battle of Birmingham" for the English Cup in the fine Stadium at Wembley. April showers fail to damp the spirits of the crowd, --

--who give the West Bromwich team a vociferous reception as they enter the arena.

Birmingham too, learn that tens of thousands wish them luck, as well !

His Royal Highness, the Duke of Gloucester greets the players,- first West Bromwich, --

--then Birmingham are honoured. The royal greeting over,--

--the toss-up won by West Bromwich Albion - and --

--away they go ! The wind is strong, and the turf is treacherous, after the heavy rains.

CROWD EFFECTS UP ON SHOT OF CLOSE-UP OF GOAL.

After exciting minutes of defending their goal, West Bromwich turn the tables and become the attackers, --

--with the result that after twenty-seven minutes of play - GOAL ! - that's what happened ! West Bromwich - one up !

This "gingers up" Birmingham, who make a grand assault on the West --

--Bromwich goal - but to no purpose. Half-time score, West Bromwich, One - Birmingham - Nil.

They're off ! on the second half, with Birmingham determined to equalize as soon --

--as possible.

CROWD EFFECTS UP TO END OF SHOT.
