(2) TITLE:- POLICE ON PARADE.

Picture:- Colonel Allen is the Inspecting Officer. ....
He is accompanied by the Chief Constable and the Lord Mayor, of Manchester. .... Half the Force --

--is on parade, the other half is on duty keeping an eye --

--open for Bill Sykes or any of his relations. .... The march past is of quite a military character, Robert "showing his paces" with soldier-like efficiency. .... Even the Guards couldn't improve on this! .... No wonder Manchester is proud of its men in blue! .... I should think His Majesty's Inspector --

--of Constabulary gave his O.K. with very little hesitation. ....

The mounted men make a brave show as they ride past the saluting base, followed by the cyclists.

And now come the mobile police, or "speed cops" - established to make motorists take notice. .... And if they don't, well, here's a very comfortable ambulance!
