TITLE.:- CARDIFF PAGEANT.

Picture.:- The pageant is held in the castle grounds, by permission of the Marquis and ---

--Marchioness of Bute. Many other distinguished people are there, in support of --

--this wonderful effort in aid of the Students' War Memorial Union. The chosen setting is one which could not possibly be improved upon.

Step by step the history of Cardiff is unfolded, in picturesque form, for the entertainment of vast crowds.

Here is depicted the homecoming of Vagn, the Jomsviking, (I hope I've pronounced it correctly). Scores of damsels represent the waves rolling around the Viking's vessel...

The episode of the marriage of Mabel Fitzhamon to the Earl of Gloucester was inspired by a painting in the Castle Banqueting Hall.

Altogether a very fine pageant, and one which has attracted so many people, that the Treasurer should be kept very busy counting up the benefits which must accrue to the Students' War Memorial Union.
