TITLE.:- ATHLETES ALL.

Picture.:- These German students are insuring against becoming part of a C.3. population. Until some years ago it was a pride of German youths to exhibit on their cheeks the scars of sabre slashes received in the gymnasium. Their frauleinen admired these honourable disfigurements. Now the horizontal bar --

--and the vaulting horse have displaced the sabre. There is a joy in being able to fly over a vaulting horse as nimbly as they are doing. Maybe amongst them are some potential athletes for the next Olympiad.
