(8). TITLE:- TENNIS ASCOT.

Picture:- Here is a galaxy of tennis stars, assembled at Lady Wavertree's social gathering held in aid of invalid children's charities in Regents Park.

Noble families are the commonplace of this function. Here is the Duke of Athlone with the Duchess immediately following him.

Lord Wavertree carries out the onerous duties of host.

And Lady May Cambridge gracefully permits our cameraman to record our charming smile.

The work of Lady Wavertree for deserving charities is well known and the -- --results are invariably gratifying. Wimbledon stars give --

--an exhibition and Brugnon returns a --

--shot to the opposing --

--pair, which Miss Heeley deals with effectively.

The audience is as delighted with the --

--tennis display as the charities will be with the cheque they get from this pretty spot in the heart of London.
