

TITLE.:- TRIANGULAR MATCH

Picture. :- The Southerners lead the grand parade, and a fine sturdy lot they look, too ! The Midlanders come next; also a fine team -- worthy entrants in the triangular battle..... The third side consists of hardy lasses from the Northern counties.

The hundred yards ! Come on girls ! Great stuff !...
A fine race! Ah ! a Northern lass wins !

The hurdles ! Three of them in the final ! The two on the right are ahead ! Its going to be a near thing ! Its Number 16's race -- it is -- Ah ! -- IT IS ! A very close finish.

Now - GO ! They're off for the quarter mile. The going's good !

Here's the finish, with another Southerner, Miss Butterfield, showing her rivals the kind of rubber heels she wears for running !

Miss Cornell, British "Long Jump" record holder, shows how -- OH ! -- records are made. Another Southern victory !

So the trophy goes South ! Miss Cornell, the Captain, says "Thank-you-very-much!"

Now its "up to" the North and Midlands to have another go, next year !
