TITLE:- WOMEN'S SWIM.

Picture:- Three-lengths of the Pool is the hundred yards course for the race.

Ready ? Go ! Splash ! Notice
the shallow-dive ? A little -- --"slow-motion" gives us an opportunity of studying their styles. Joyce Cooper, the favourite, is nearest the camera. What a swimmer !

At the end of the second "length", like Dick Whittington they "turn again". Now for the "home stretch" ! There's speed for you ! They don't mind being called "fast" - they love it !

Here comes Joyce, streaking through the water at a terrific rate ! She's there ! and wins the Championship in sixty-five and three fifth seconds !

Well done, Joyce ! I suppose it's a bit --

--cheeky calling her by her first name, but she's "a sport" - aren't you, Joyce ?
