TITLE.:- HURRICANE HAVOC.

Picture.:- A terrible hurricane and tidal wave hit the town with such force--

--that more than half of it is laid in ruins, awful and complete. XXXX Hundreds--

--perished, and no one feels the tragedy of it all more than Sir John Burdon, the Governor of British Honduras.

It is an awful experience for him. XXXX

It will never be known how many natives lost their lives when the calamity swept over the town.

Boats were lifted from the harbour and smashed down far inland. XXXX Scarcely--

--a house is left standing ! XXXX Many buildings were washed out to sea, by a tidal wave which accompanied the hurricane.

Aid came promptly - thanks to our American cousins !XXXX Whatever else--

--the unfortunate inhabitants of Belize had to do without, they were not allowed to starve !
