

158582-2

(8).

TITLE.:- THRILLS OF THE CHASE.

Picture.:- They've spotted drink smugglers, who ignore the stop signal, and get a shot--

--across their bows, as extra warning !

The cutter isn't fast enough, so a --

--message for help is sent to the Coast Guard headquarters.

SUSPECT STANDING NORTH, THROUGH NARROWS, UNABLE OVERTAKE.

They are ready for any emergency, and this is a red-hot one !

The smugglers heave the contraband liquor overboard. XXXX They've "got--

--the wind up". XXXX The Coast Guards know their man. XXXX He's the most troublesome of all the crooks in the illegal liquor traffic. XXXX Jim Dering has got them on his trail, at last !

The bigger boat was an easy proposition,--

--but a racer is different ! XXXX

They are inside the 12-mile limit. It means real trouble if they are --

--caught ! XXXX But there's no getting away with it this time !

They've got 'em ! XXXX Dering and his crew are as good as in gaol already ! XXXX These pictures prove that "truth can be stranger than fiction".

No fire-arms are found on the prisoners. XXXX You may be sure they dumped them over the side with the liquor ! XXXX The end--

--of this story will find Dering and his band behind the bars - not the kind of bars they've been doing business with, either ! XX In a dozen years or so they'll be wondering what liquor smells like !