TITLE:- PRINCE OF WALES.

Picture:- A day's hustling on the part of the Prince of Wales. XXXX Accompanied by Lord Derby--

--His Royal Highness started his Merseyside tour, by--

--boarding the tender, "Vigilant". XXXXX Seas were running--

--very high outside the dock, but it takes more than that to worry the Prince. XXXXX

He first visited the Aged Mariners' Home at Egremont, and then the--

--Lancashire and National Sea Training School at Wallasey, where he inspected a parade of seamen of the future. XXXX

Once again His Royal Highness boarded the tender, for a short run to the old frigate--

--which, as H.M.S. 'Conway' now serves as a cadet training ship. XXXXXX His--

--stay aboard/<sup>was</sup>necessarily short, for time was getting on. XXXXX So, the Prince--

--returned to Rock Ferry. XXXXX It was a busy day,--

--but he left everybody happy - It's a way he has!
