

PETER PAN CUP - Annual 100-yards midwinter swimming race in the Serpentine, Hyde Park.

-London-

Picture.:- Brrh ! Chilly for June, isn't it ? Sorry !
This is a mid-winter scene at-- --the Serpentine, Hyde Park. These hardy annuals (I am sure they will pardon me) are competing in the hundred yards--

--race for the Peter Pan Cup presented by Sir James Barrie. Oh ! Very exhilarating in frosty weather !
Brrh !

Over 20 brave souls plunged in to push themselves through the cold water after that cup. It must be a good cup ! And one competitor--

--is 68 years of age, and still swimming !

Mr. Louis Fabian wins the race, and the others cheer--

--him frostily as he receives the cup for his achievement.

Hurray ! Mr. Fabian ! With chattering teeth and chilled--

--fingers, we salute you !, and offer our congratulations - Attishoo !
