

"PIRATES, AHoy !" - Whole town surrenders to modern counterpart of historic sea brigand.

-Tampa, Florida-

Picture.:- Everybody honours the virtuous and good ! This town--

--honours the brutal and bad; a blood--

--thirsty crew of sea pirates which raked the Spanish Main in--

--the bad old days. A group of club--

--men launched the idea, and the ship, in 1904, and every year the pirate---

--band comes back and turns the city up--

--sidedown. The men and women, the boys and girls of-- --Tampa, Florida turn out in their thousands to surrender to the wickedest buccaneers that ever slit a throat or scuttled a ship, but their imitators are a backboneless lot.

They just fly flags, sing jolly songs and-- --make friends with everybody. No "once aboard the lugger" business ! It's a fraud, girls !
