

TO "TOLL" NO MORE

- After 145 years Gainsborough

Bridge is freed from tolls.

-Lincolnshire-

Picture.: England is not a free country ! You can't cross this bridge without--

--paying a toll. One shilling for a dry crossing ! You can swim the-- --river if you're one of the saving kind ! There's no charge for that ! That was yesterday's imposition !

To-day after this ceremony you may go across buckshee ! For 145--

--years farmers and others have paid thousands of pounds in tolls. Now the last is paid by Mr--

--Pybus. In the presence of ten thousand--

--people from the shires of Nottingham and Lincoln, the Minister of Transport cuts the ribbon and is--

--himself the first person for seven score years to cross the bridge without--

--payment ! After that the town rejoices ! Well ! Look at the money we save, don't it ?
