SOLDIERS OF THE SEA - Marines "go through their paces" by way of rehearsal for the Royal Tournament display.

-Kent-

Picture:- By way of a holiday now that the summer is coming I think, the Marines do some wonderful drill for the Royal Tournament display. Watch this !
- - - Very good !

The youngsters agree with me, too !

(Word of command). Precision !

Look at this ! The slow motion camera labels the Marines' quickness, but shows how exact and machine like their movements are !

When created years ago, the men of this Regiment were called "Red Herrings" after their red coats and the salt sea soldier flavour ! Sailors of that time looked at them rather contemptuously. Their excellent work in many hot engagements however, soon proved how valuable a sea force they were ! This--

--glimpse of the Tournament drill rehearsal shows how really smart these soldiers of the sea can be.
