

2-058851

SHIP OF HOPE - The Scottish Trade Mission Ship "Letitia" arrives at Montreal to promote commerce between the two countries.-Canada-

Picture.:- Up the St. Lawrence river, comes the good ship Letitia, Scotland's--

--very own "Show-Boat". ..... She carries lots of-- --good things made "beyond the Tweed" - - for trade with Canada.

....."Pipes of Peace" - (heh !) - welcome the Honourable H.H. Stevens, (left), the Canadian Minister of-- --Commerce, as he greets Captain Taylor and His Grace the Duke of Montrose. ....

A lad and lassie bring along four bright little "immigrants", each one as--

--Scotch as the Haggis. ..... They'll stay in Canada, I'll wager.

(MUSIC UP ON SHOT OF DANCERS).

The Canadians seem to like "Scotch". ..... Well, they are--

--not alone in that. .... Good health, everybody !

(MUSIC UP TO END OF STORY).