"THE LADY OF THE LAMP" - H.R.H. The Prince of Wales lays foundation stone of Florence Nightingale Memorial Hall at Holloway. Derbyshire-

Picture.:- They've come from miles around to welcome His Royal Highness. He is here to-- --honour the memory of Florence Nightingale, the nurse-heroine of the Crimean War. ...

The "Lady of the Lamp" lived quite close to the-- --scene of to-day's ceremony. The Prince--

--makes a thoroughly workmanlike job of the foundation-stone-laying.

He knows it is to be there for evermore ! ...

The people hereabouts will long remember this day as a red-letter one in local history.

Ha ! ha ! It almost looks as though they'd like to keep the Prince himself as a souvenir of the occasion !
