HARD HITTING HELEN - Mrs Helen Wills-Moody (U.S.A.)
defeats Miss M. Heeley (G.B.) in semi-final of Wimbledon championships.

-Surrey-

Picture:- As the Wimbledon tournaments progress, so public interest appears--

--to increase rather than decrease. As Mrs Helen Wills--
--Moody, and little Miss Heeley--

--approach the centre court, excitement is in the air. Miss Heeley--

--serves and a long range rally provide a slight tension.
But little Miss Poker-Face, as Helen is often called is seldom distressed by her opponent's energy and tactics.

For the second time this season the Queen--

--attends. Mrs Wills' serves one of those "Where did that-- --one go to" shots. Another nickname for Helen is the Californian Catapult. Her service has earned that.

Miss Heeley tries hard, but the odds against her are too great. She is fighting--

--a woman who twice won the triple-- --championships of America, France and Britain. And the end comes as--

--no surprise. It's a pity but this defeat--

--of Miss Heeley means an "All American" Final!
