

C-44851

SEARCHLIGHT TATTOO - Thousands of school children witness the only full daylight performance of the Woolwich Garrison display. London-

Picture:- The bright lads doing physical jerks in the middle distance are Royal Artillery Recruits of-- --less than eight weeks training. A few more weeks with-- --equal progress towards precision, should kill the Sergeant-Major's sarcasm during Squad drill -, although I don't know ! This daylight--

--Dress Rehearsal of the Woolwich Searchlight Tattoo is witnessed--

--by thousands of school children. A number of naval--

--and Chelsea pensioners in the evening of their days--

--watch items which remind them of their adventurous youth. This one for instance ! An episode--

--in the Battle of Alexandria ! The 1st Battalion Gloucesters attacked by-- --French Infantry and Cavalry simultaneously. They repulsed the enemy,-- and are allowed to wear a Badge at the back of their caps as well as in front. Another spectacular show of how the Empire was built !