BOXING SCHOOLMASTER - Holiday crowds

see David Curle, the fighting pedagogue, badly beaten by Fred Rowlands of Exeter.
- Crystal Palace.

Picture:- Introducing Dave Curle, Scotland, right and Fred Rowlands, Exeter, left.

Dave Curle is really a school-teacher. He's -- -- tired of walloping boys, so he has asked Rowlands to oblige. Rowlands is a boxer. If Curle wins, critics will say it was brain against brawn --
-- but we'd better wait and see. Curle is game, but -- that's not so good --
-- That's the first round over. Rowlands put the -- -- Scotsman down for eight and then the bell rang .

They are both following their professions. The school-teacher is thinking and -- -- the boxer is punching. Curle takes punishment and also a rest.

However, he comes back and keeps on keeping -- -- on with Rowlands hitting hard and often. Oh, slap him while he's not looking. Rowlands is getting cross and he's knocked Curle right back -- -- into school-teaching - and now who's next Big Boy !
