OUR AIRMEN GUESTS - - Owner-pilots from many foreign countries fly to Heston for "hospitality gathering".

-Middlesex-

---

Picture.:- British aviators invite European pilots to a party at Heston, in return for hospitality received on visits to the Continent. ....

There's a cup for the first arrival after noon, --

--but Fraulein Wirtz loses it for turning up too early. ....
(If she had only gone back for her lipstick !)

After twelve o'clock has struck there is a regular rush of arrivals - - the first to "drop in" being the Polish aviator, Count--

--Skorzewski. .... There's your cup, sir ! ....
Good work !, to arrive 'on the tick' of the clock after flying 2,000 miles ! Congratulations !

Monsieur and Madame Blenstein have often entertained British fliers ~~over~~ in France, and the-- --same applies to Monsieur Jean Stamp and his wife from Belgium. ....

Fraulein Beinhorn, the German girl who flew alone to Australia, is another one of the party.

~~It is a fine idea,~~ and quite a delightful way of saying "thank you", --

--merci ! Danke schon, or grazia ! for the many courtesies received by Britishers when flying in foreign countries.
