

WITH A CENTURY'S GLORY UPON THEM - - Old

Colours of the 1st Btn Royal Lancashire Militia laid up, with simple ceremony, at Lancaster Priory Church.

-Lancashire-

Picture.:- Contact with the almost obsolete word--

--"militia" is renewed when the King's Own Royal Regiment salute the old colours--

--of the First Battalion Royal Lancashire Militia.
The--

--two Standards are being ceremonially placed in the Regimental Chapel. The first was presented to the Battalion by Queen Charlotte in 1806.

Civic officials of Lancaster headed by the Mayor attend the Service--

--which immures these Colours under the sacred roof.
Never again will they fly in the breeze under open skies. They are passing as--

--the men who fought beneath them passed - - into the sacred shadow.
