AIRPORT FOR ESSEX - - Lord Mayor of London and many famous aviators at inauguration of new aerodrome at Maylands.-Romford-

---

Picture:- Essex wants an airport, so the county organises a-- --demonstration to urge this modern claim. London's Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress come by-- --plane to give their support. They are welcomed by many people prominent in aviation.

There's Mrs. Victor Bruce who owns a "Flying" flat !

Little Dorian Hillman presents posies to Janet and Kathryn Hutchinson whose adventures the whole world-- --knows. These great crowds gathered to see, among-- --others, Amy and Jim Mellison who meet the Hutchinson family. An--

--airminded audience assemble in Romford Market Place--

--to listen to the address-- of welcome to the Lord Mayor, and his reply--

--to them, and incidentally the ceremonial fly past--

--of several air squadrons, including No.54 Fighter--

--Squadron which thrills the crowd--

--with some brilliant aerobatics. Sir Maurice Jenks acknowledges the-- --dipping salute of the planes. After--

--this the county's slogan should be "Essex for air enterprise !"
