

UNDER ORDERS ! Dogs of many breeds obey commands with remarkable intelligence in Obedience Trials at the Crystal Palace.

-Sydenham-

Picture :- If every child was as obedient as these dogs, parents with large families would only have to work at the office.

The dogs have been told to stand and wait and they just stand and--

--wait until their owners return to them. The occasion is the Obedience Trials--

--of the Associated Sheep, Police, and Army Dog Show.
The dogs have now been--

--instructed to lie down unattended for a whole ten minutes, without exchanging sniffs--

--with friend or enemy. When the time is--

--up, the owners return, not so thirsty as their dogs I expect. There are other tests quite-- --severe which most of the animals pass without disgracing themselves. Although patted, they must still remain still. Too bad !

This Great Dane "Zena" is the winner and both ladies are pleased.
