

3-PP4P21

MOTOR CYCLING AT BROOKLANDS - - Glorious weather and a large crowd give the motor-cycle racing season a great send-off.

-Surrey-

Picture:- Another racing season starts. There's the paddock, but not a nag is to be seen!

The steel steeds, with crash-helmeted jockeys up--

--are favoured by crowds and warm spring sunshine, as--

--they take the starting line for their first race,
and move off.

(EFFECTS)
(EFFECTS)
(EFFECTS) (4 shots).
(EFFECTS)

Here comes the winner of this heat, Mr.H.-

--Earl, who covered the course at an average--

--speed of 58½ miles an hour.