JIM AND AMY - - Mr. J. A. Mollison, accompanied by his wife, accorded a warm welcome home after his wonderful flight across the South Atlantic.

-London-

Picture.:- Jim and Amy return from France to the country of their birth. Lady Cobham greets Mrs.
Mollison and presents her with a bouquet. You can see that it's a very affectionate welcome home, as it certainly ought to be. Sir Alan Cobham winds up the ceremony with a hand-shake for the hero and heroine.

This is Mollison's first landing in England after his extraordinary flight across the South Atlantic. Six-thousand miles in three and a half days. He's the only man in the-- --world who has flown westward over both the-- --North and South Atlantic oceans. At the moment these two - - Amy--

--and Jim are Britain's most popular hero and heroine, even though they're not screen stars - - er - - not yet ! Up to now their deeds and dangers have been real - - too real sometimes.
Now the adventurous lovers are preparing to perform yet another deed of great daring - -

--a joint Atlantic flight. Was there ever a-- --more amazing pair ? The world is their playground.

Here to-day and --

--gone to Timbuctoo to-morrow. Whatever you-- --do, the best of luck when you do it !
