SAGACITY - - Remarkable performances by canine competitors in obedience tests at Crystal Palace.

-Sydenham-

Picture:-

A bunch of Britain's best and most obedient bow-wows !
This lot--

--stays 'put' for fifteen minutes while--

--their owners wait within sight of the animals.

During the test, stewards are allowed to walk amongst--

--the dogs, but if they move before their--

--owners return and give them the word, they are disqualified.

The winner is "Derwet von Rossenberg" of Pinfeld, a German police dog.

Retrieving dumb-bells (Why dumb-bells, I don't know).
The dogs must--

--climb the obstacle and return over it with the retrieved object.

The long jump !

Nine feet is cleared easily.

In fact the things which amuse--

-- these human beings are so boring ! (Effects).

After German hounds come the French--

--poodles in a surprise item.

The worst test. Raw liver and steak is offered to hungry dogs, and they refuse it !

The show winner is "Chalcoott Boss", a Welsh sheep dog.
